"One of the most important factors is the diversity of the agents: they come from all around the world. And secondly, the quality of the organization, the staff are tremendous and also help whenever asked." - Mr. Rene Helmans - Kozminski University, Poland.

"We are a university that's dealing with the intercultural dialogue and understanding, and meeting so many agents and other universities from different parts of the world was enlightening." - Prof. Dr. Abdelhamid El-Zoheiry - EMUNI University - Slovenia

"I really like the agencies, the selection part was on the spot. The agencies are very business-oriented, that is the most important thing that the university can find in events like this." - Mr. Giorgi Imedashvili - The University of Georgia - Georgia
